1. Once a week small groups include 3-7 students at one time to engage in a variety of social-emotional topics. The curriculum for these sessions will be provided by the Now You Know Program with a certified therapist. Sessions focus on building social skills, social awareness, interaction with leadership, safety awareness in the community, developing personal goals and celebrating personal achievement. Ideally, the group includes neurotypical students. These students could be volunteers applying to be Guests of the Now You Know Program, who can model strong social skills, solid spiritual standing and community responsibility.

2. Counselor-Teacher Collaboration - This time is reserved for making written or verbal recommendations to the CHA staff interacting with Now You Know Program participants or for visiting the classrooms. This time is also for staff to make requests of the Now You Know Program. Some of this time may also be allocated to interacting individually with participants of the Now You Know Program that are not individual clients.
